Western Division (1903, fourth impression): Gloucester - Hereford - Worcester - Bristol - Lichfield
'Richard John King (1818–1879) was a large contributor to Murray's series of handbooks to the English counties. He prepared handbooks on Kent and Sussex (1858), on Surrey and Hampshire and the Isle of Wight (1858), and on Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, and Cambridgeshire (1870). He also worked on Yorkshire (1866–8), Northamptonshire (1872–7), Warwickshire and Hertfordshire (1872–5), and the fifth and later editions of Devon and Cornwall. He was the leading writer in the same publisher's series of Handbooks to the Cathedrals of England (1861–9) and in the subsequent volume on the Cathedrals of Wales (1873). Sections of both the county and cathedral handbooks were also issued separately.' (ODNB)

61. Russell, Frederic William: Kett's Rebellion in Norfolk; Being a History of the Great Civil Commotion that Occurred at the Time of the Reformation, in the Reign of Edward VI [...] London: Longman, Brown, Green, Longmans & Roberts [...] and William Penny, 1859.
4to., pp. xiii, [iii], 240 + 10 plates, as called for. Occasional light foxing, spots and smudges, first leaf of Preface very tattered at edges. A few small annotations. Brown textured cloth, gilt spine and centrepiece, blind-stamped boards, top edge gilt. Joints very won, loss to endcaps, corners bumped, first gathering (i.e. frontispiece, title-page and dedication) loosening, a little shaken but still a good working copy overall.
To half-title, ownership inscriptions of Thos. Wm. King, York Herald (dated 16th October 1861) and of P.A. Slack (dated Oct. 1978). Thomas William King (1802-1872) began his duties at the College of Arms as a clerk before becoming Rouge Dragon in 1833 and later York Herald. He became Treasurer of the College en titre in 1848, having performed the duties since 1833. He was an original member of British Archaeological Association and wrote articles on heraldry in Encyclopaedia Britannica (before 1863).
